20260506_On Trump Derangement Syndrome

I really want to re-iterate that point once more.

Queen Donna, the Bee Queen, and her team of agitation bees,

Are so obsesssed with causing the world to be bothered by them,

BECAUSE IT MAKES THEM FEEL IMPORTANT -

IT MAKES QUEEN DONNA FEEL CONSEQUENTIAL.

Queen Donna feels a sense of accomplishment and importance by her ability to bother the entire world.

It's truly ironic that Queen Donna goes around accusing the people that she is harassing of having 'Trump Derangement Syndrome' when she is the one that is deranged and unable to sit peacefully and contently inside of a mansion, inside of a complex, inside of a city, inside of a country that she leads and 'controls' as the President.

Their is nothing that can satisfy the uneasiness that a person like that feels in their heart, mind, body, and soul.

She can pretend to feel happy, etc., but her actions show very clearly that it's not real.

Queen Donna is obsessed with causing others (all of us) to feel agitated, disgusted, appalled, and generally negatively affected by her actions so that she can feel consequential - like she was 'important' at that time.

She truly did lose her mind, world.

This is an ongoing historical theme.

When someone attempts to embody the satan, they lose it all - starting with their own mind.

Let's all let this message sink into our collective consciousness for awhile as we truly come to understand what a lost, darkened, and depressed soul she has produced for herself.
